

Public Purchasing Made Simple with Sourcewell Cooperative Purchasing

Genlyte is proud to announce its recent award of a Sourcewell cooperative purchasing contract in the smart infrastructure products and software category.

Sourcewell, a self-funded governmental organization established in 1978, facilitates a cooperative purchasing program that harnesses the collective purchasing power of more than 50,000 participating agencies. By streamlining procurement with pre-negotiated, competitive contracts, Sourcewell enables government, educational, and nonprofit organizations to secure cost-effective and efficient purchasing solutions.
